JUDGE E. A. TURNAGE

DEDICATION

I think Judge E. A. Turnage is the proper person to be honored by dedication of the inaugural issue of the Mississippi College Law Review. He has contributed greatly to the advancement of legal education at Mississippi College Law School and is also a leader in other fields in Mississippi, government and defense.

He has served as County Attorney, Legislator of Lawrence County, as well as being the Mayor of Monticello, the county seat. He is a former Judge of the Thirteenth Chancery Court District and in addition has served as Mississippi Adjutant General.

It is my pleasure to salute the Mississippi College Law Review in its choice of the dedication of its first issue to Honorable E. A. Turnage.
