MISSISSIPPI COLLEGE LAW REVIEW

VOLUME 23

FALL 2003

ISSUE 1

---

The College: Mississippi College is the oldest institution of higher learning in the state of Mississippi, chartered by the Legislature in 1826. The School of Law began as the Jackson School of Law in 1930, joining Mississippi College in 1975. The Law Review began shortly thereafter, with its first issue seeing publication in 1978.

Since then the Law Review has become an invaluable aid for the judiciary, practitioners, professors, and students of law. It has been relied upon in reported cases over forty times, a number which includes a host of Mississippi state appellate and district court cases and bankruptcy citations.

SUBSCRIPTIONS: The Mississippi College Law Review is published by the Editorial Board and Staff of the Law Review. The Review is published twice annually. The subscription rate is $24.00 for one year. Checks are to be made payable to Account #10-215-1756, Mississippi College Law Review. The Review renews all subscriptions automatically unless the subscriber provides timely notice of cancellation. Information requests, new orders, address changes, subscriptions, cancellations, and similar correspondence should be directed to:

Business Manager
Mississippi College Law Review
151 East Griffith Street
Jackson, Mississippi 39201

UNSOLICITED MANUSCRIPTS: The Law Review wholeheartedly encourages submissions. There are three important caveats to this rule: first, articles examining Mississippi law are given preference; second, the Law Review does not publish the work of students currently studying at other Law Schools; and lastly, all citations should conform to the latest available edition of the Uniform System of Citation, commonly referred to as the Bluebook.

DISCLAIMER: The views expressed in this periodical are attributable solely to the authors and not to the periodical, its editor, or the Mississippi College Law Review.
